

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION for the FINE PRESS BOOK ASSOCIATION

(for North American applicants; all others should use the U.K. application)

The Fine Press Book Association is an all-volunteer organization formed by individuals interested in the art of fine printing. The FPBA began in 1998, and now has a worldwide membership of those interested in the book arts: collectors, printers, artists, illustrators, museums, rare book libraries, and dealers all belong. It publishes a twice-yearly journal, Parenthesis, which alternates issues between North American and U.K. staffs.

Name

Institution

Address

Phone

Email

Membership Level:

_____ standard – $48 in U.S.D.

_____ institutional – $60 in U.S.D.

_____ deluxe – $225 in U.S.D.

(Each deluxe copy of Parenthesis comes with a portfolio of work by FPBA member presses from around the world.)

_____ Check if you do not want your information shared with other book-related organizations.

_____ I include an additional tax-exempt gift to FPBA of $_____.

_____ I would like to review books.

_____ I would like to write articles.

_____ I would like to work on the web site.

Make checks payable to Fine Press Book Association

Mail application and payment to Carol J. Blinn, Warwick Press
One Cottage Street #36
Easthampton, MA 01027 USA

Subsequent membership queries, address changes, etc. should be addressed to Sean Donnelly, University of Tampa Press, 401 W. Kennedy Blvd. - 19F, Tampa, FL 33606 or sdonnelly@ut.edu